

REAWAKENING HOPE

“For hope and faith are living – living – things! Thus hope springs anew with the growth and the knowledge and the understanding of the light on the way, and that life indeed is an eternal expression of the love of the Father.”

[Edgar Cayce reading #1504-1]

We are on the cusp of the Piscean and Aquarian Ages; a time of transition. As the world around us is changing we can choose to be fearful and try to cling to the past, or reawaken the hope within and create what we desire. ‘Who we are’ is constantly evolving, day by day, as a result of even our smallest choices. During this day of renewal, you will clear away energetic knots that keep you stuck in old patterns and begin to build on those things that make you feel alive. When we feel alone and abandoned we may question our purpose. As we gather together in community, you will have the opportunity to feel support and “remember” that you are an individual, yet an integral part of the whole.

- Mindwalk to turn off the energy of a negative, limiting thought and create the pathway for positive thoughts of hope
- Use the power of a personal labyrinth for healing and to hear the voice within
- Experience the feeling of hope
- Connect with others in your spiritual community as you discover and share your unique gift
- Connect with the Ascended Masters to receive a sign or symbol of hope
