Heaven Knows What: Contributing to the “right-on” nature of this chart are calculations that are particularly sensitive to “combinations” of aspects in a chart. This allows for a more accurate reading of character traits as displayed in the natal chart. The actual text of the chart is based on the writing of legendary astrologer William Grant Lewi II. Grant is called the father of modern astrology. He was a writer and editor for the two largest astrological magazines of his time. The astrological interpretations found in Heaven Knows What are unique, fresh, and simple. Llewellyn George, a prominent astrologer of the twentieth century, remarked that Lewi's interpretations must be intuitive because they were unlike any that had been written before him. Today these interpretations remain energetic and forceful, providing some of the clearest insights found anywhere in the literature of astrology. Reports average 25 pages. A unique feature of this chart is that it includes personal forecast information for your upcoming months.	$25 <input type="checkbox"/>
